Part A - Policy

1 Policy Statement

Kings Hill School Primary and Nursery is committed to achieving the highest possible standards of probity and integrity regarding its practices.

The school recognises that it is important for all staff, including supply teachers and teaching assistants, volunteers and contractors, to have a means by which they can raise serious concerns about any aspect of the operation of the school. The school further acknowledges its obligations under the Public Disclosure Act (1998) to ensure mechanisms are in place through which concerns relating to matters of public interest can be raised.

Kings Hill School encourages all staff to raise any concerns internally at the earliest opportunity rather than disregarding issues or raisin the matter externally.

The School will address concerns seriously and undertake as much investigation as is necessary given the circumstances – this may include referral to external agencies.

Kings Hill School will endeavour to advise the member of staff of any actions / outcomes arising from a complaint where appropriate and will provide reasonable support to the member of staff who raises a concern.

Where a concern is raised, Kings Hill School will ensure that the member of staff will be protected from detriment, harassment and victimisation. It is recognised that in certain cases it may be appropriate to consider concerns raised on a confidential or anonymous basis.

This policy and procedure explains:

- The mechanism for raising concerns
- The range of responses Kings Hill School may take upon receipt of concerns
- The support and protection available to members of staff

2 Scope

This Policy and Procedure applies to all staff members of Kings Hill School Primary and Nursery including supply teachers and teaching assistants, volunteers, contractors and others working on the school's premises.

Protect defines whistleblowing as:

'The raising of a concern either within the work place or externally, about a danger, risk, malpractice or wrong doing which affects others.'

The whistleblowing procedure provides a means for staff to raise concerns about conduct or situations which they believe are inappropriate. Concerns may include, but are not limited to:

- Conduct which is, has been or is likely to be an offence or breach of law
- Conduct that has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur as a result of which the school fails to comply with a legal obligation
- Acts or potential acts of fraud / corruption / bribery or the misuse of public funds / resources
- Miscarriages of justice
- Past, current or likely health and safety risks

- Concerns about any aspect of service provision
- Behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child and/or
- Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child and/or;
- Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates he or she may pose a risk of harm to children; and/or
- Behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children
- Failure to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism (the 'Prevent Duty')
- Unethical or unprofessional conduct that causes concern
- The deliberate concealment of information relating to concerns listed above

Concerns relating to an individual's own employment will be raised through the school's grievance and harassment procedures.

Staff may raise concerns about the practice of anyone who works for or on behalf of the school including:

- All staff members, including supply teachers and teaching assistants, volunteers and contractors.
- Governors

Concerns that staff have may be raised individually or collectively. If collective concerns are raised, staff should be prepared to give their own account during any investigation, should this be required.

There is no time limit for raising a concern – however staff are encouraged to do so at the earliest opportunity since it may be difficult to address a matter if a significant time has elapsed.

3 Adoption Arrangements and Date

This procedure was adopted by the Governing Body of Kings Hill School Primary and Nursery and supersedes any previous whistleblowing policy and procedure.

This policy will be reviewed by Kings Hill School Primary and Nursery every year or earlier if there is a need.

4 Responsibilities of the School

- To foster a culture where staff can feel confident in raising concerns
- To ensure concerns are fully considered, investigated as necessary and action taken as appropriate
- To ensure that staff raising concerns receive feedback on any action taken where appropriate
- To make staff aware how they can take matters further if they are not satisfied
- To reassure staff that they will be protected against detriment and reprisal should they raise a concern

5 Responsibilities of the Employee

- To raise concerns only where there is a reasonable suspicion for doing so
- Not to knowingly raise a false allegation with malicious or vexatious intent

- To engage with internal / external actions to address any concerns – by attending meetings and / or participating in any investigation

6 Trade Union Representation

Staff members may wish to consult and seek guidance from their Trade Union representative before making a disclosure under this procedure. Staff members may be accompanied to any meeting by a trade union representative or workplace colleague who is not involved in the area of work to which the concern relates.

7 Responsible Officer and Monitoring of Complaints

The Governing Body has overall responsibility for the maintenance and operation of this policy and procedure. The Headteacher will ensure the effective implementation of the whistleblowing arrangements, providing training as appropriate, and undertake an annual audit of the whistleblowing arrangements, reporting the outcome to the Full Governing Body.

The Headteacher will consider:

- The number and types of concerns raised and the outcomes of the investigations.
- Feedback from individuals who have used the arrangements
- Any complaints of victimisation
- Any complaints of failures to maintain confidentiality
- Any relevant litigation
- The level of staff awareness, trust and confidence in the arrangements

Any reporting will not identify the parties to the complaint.

Part B - Procedure

8 Raising a Concern

Wherever possible Employees should initially raise concerns openly with their line manager or the Headteacher.

In instances of serious concern or where the complaint involves the line manager or Headteacher complaints may be raised with the Chair of Governors.

Should the Headteacher have concerns – these should be raised with the Chair of Governors in the first instance.

Please refer to Appendix 1 for the appropriate internal contacts

Concerns may be raised verbally or in writing.

A concern raised in writing should:

- Set out the background and history of the concern - giving names, dates and places where possible
- Give the reason why the Employee is particularly concerned about the situation

- For clarity it would be helpful for the Employee to state that they wish their concerns to be addressed under the whistleblowing procedure

An Employee is not expected to prove the validity of their concern, however they will need to demonstrate that there are sufficient and reasonable grounds for their complaint. Further investigation may be hampered if there is only limited evidence to support the concern raised.

An Employee may invite a Trade Union representative to support them in raising a concern or raise the matter on their behalf or at a subsequent meeting to explore the complaint.

9 How the School will respond

Preliminary enquiries may be made to decide on the appropriate course of action. This may necessitate further discussion with the member of staff who has raised the concern. On occasion it may not be appropriate for the person who receives the complaint to progress the concern and the matter may be referred to another individual within the school or an external organisation.

It may be possible to resolve some concerns informally by agreed action without the need for further formal investigation.

Where it is not possible to resolve the matter informally, the action taken by the school will depend on the nature of the concern and may include:

- Undertaking an internal management or disciplinary investigation
- Referral to KCC's Head of Internal Audit (please note this is a requirement in all cases of suspected financial irregularity in maintained schools)
- Referral to an external auditor
- Referral to another regulatory authority
- Referral to the Police
- Referral to the integrated children's services

Within 10 working days of receipt of any concern, the person progressing the matter will write to the staff member to:

- Acknowledge that the concern has been received
- Indicate how and through whom the school proposes to address the matter including whether further investigation or referral to another organisation will be made
- Give an estimate of how long the investigation will take
- Indicate whether further information will be sought from the staff member and the arrangements for obtaining this where known

The form of further contact between the staff member and the person progressing the complaint will depend on the nature of the matter raised and the follow up action required.

In instances where an investigation is prolonged or referral to an external agency takes place – arrangements will be made to provide the staff member with situational updates as far as is practicable. On occasion the person considering the complaint may determine that it is not appropriate for further action to be taken. This may include where:

- There is no evidence that malpractice has occurred

- The matter is / has been the subject of internal proceedings under another school policy
- The matter is / has been the subject of external legal proceedings / been referred to another external agency
- A false and malicious or vexatious complaint has been made

10 Notification of the Outcome of the Concern

Kings Hill School recognises that a staff member raising a concern would wish to be assured that the matter has been fully addressed. Feedback will be provided on the outcome of the complaint, wherever possible.

In some circumstances, however, it may not be appropriate or permissible to share this information (for example where legal / disciplinary or regulatory authority action is pending or if sharing information may infringe the duty of confidence owed to a third party). Where it is not appropriate to provide detailed feedback the staff member will be advised that the matter has been addressed or concluded as far as is practicable.

Where a matter is not to be considered further the staff member who raised the complaint will be advised of this in writing.

11 How the matter may be taken further

This procedure is intended to provide staff members with a mechanism to raise concerns internally within the school. Should this process be exhausted and the staff member feels that matters have not been fully / appropriately addressed or that concerns are ongoing they may wish to raise the matter outside of the school. Appropriate contacts are listed at Appendix 1.

A member of staff who intends to raise a concern externally is encouraged to consider carefully whether this is the most appropriate form of action to resolve the issue and whether all reasonable internal steps have been taken.

If a matter is raised outside of the school, the staff member should take all reasonable steps to ensure that confidential or privileged information is not disclosed.

12 Protection and Support for Employees

Kings Hill School will take reasonable measures to support and protect staff member who raise concerns.

Protection from Detriment

Staff members raising a concern with reasonable suspicion for doing so will not be subject to discrimination, harassment or victimisation. Should a staff member believe they have been subject to detriment or retribution they should report this to the Chair of Governors who may address the matter in accordance with the school's disciplinary procedure.

No action will be taken against a staff member where concerns raised are subsequently unproven.

However disciplinary action may be taken against individuals who knowingly make 'false, malicious and / or vexatious' allegations.

Should a member of staff commit a criminal offence in raising a concern (e.g. accepting a bribe or an act of corruption) protection from detriment may be lost and the staff member may be subject to the school's disciplinary procedures.

Confidentiality

The best way to raise a concern is to do so openly. Openness makes it easier for the school to assess and investigate the issue. However, it is recognised that there may be some circumstances where a staff member would prefer to raise a concern in confidence. Members of staff should make the school aware of this when raising their concern.

Where appropriate every effort and consideration will be given to arrangements to maintain the staff member's confidentiality – including off site meetings where appropriate.

Every effort will be made not to reveal the staff member's identity, without their prior consent, if this is their wish.

However, in certain cases, it may not be possible to maintain confidentiality if the concern is subject to an external / police investigation where disclosure is required. A staff member will be advised should there be a possibility that their confidentiality cannot be maintained.

Anonymous Concerns

Employees are encouraged to put their name to any allegation where possible.

Anonymous allegations will be considered and investigated at the school's discretion. In exercising the discretion, the following factors may be considered:

- The seriousness of the issues raised
- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources

It should be noted that it may be more difficult to address the concern, support a member of staff or advise them of the outcome where a concern is reported anonymously.

Support

Members of staff who raise a concern may wish to make use of the confidential counselling service provided by the school, if appropriate.

This offers 7 counselling sessions per member of staff. Members of staff may also wish to consult their professional association or Trade Union if they are a member. Other sources of support are provided in Appendix A.

Should a staff member be required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, consideration will be given to appropriate support.

13 Other Concurrent Processes

Where a complaint is raised under the whistleblowing procedure this will not in itself be sufficient to halt any other ongoing processes relating to absence, conduct, performance or redundancy.

However, each case will be considered on its merits to ensure that the School is acting reasonably.

14 Record Keeping

Notes may be taken of all meetings with the staff member held under this procedure. Where notes are taken a copy will be made available to the staff member.

All records relating to the management of whistleblowing disclosures will be gathered, processed, held and shared in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations and Data Protection Act (2018). In certain limited circumstances information may be shared by the school for the purpose of managing the disclosure.

Please refer to the school's Data Protection Policy and Privacy Notice for further details.

A central record of whistleblowing will be maintained by the Governing Body. This record will include, a summary of the concern raised, action taken and the resulting outcome. Senior staff or Governors who receive whistleblowing concerns must ensure the concern is recorded.

Appendix A: Contact Details

It is the usual expectation that a staff member will have endeavoured to raise the concern internally within the school before referring the matter to an external organisation.
